PROFILE

I write poetry, essays and reflections, working in corporeal writing — the relationship between memory, the body, language and lived experience — in conversation with the work of Lidia Yuknavitch. I am drawn to editorial work, to knowledge creation, and to the craft of shaping ideas into stories that resonate with others.

BEYOND WRITING

Digital Solutions Consultant at Valvoline Global Operations (2023 – present), helping organizations navigate change. At the core of everything I do is teaching and learning: learn from others, learn from yourself, and share what you discover along the way.
